GIVING THE SOP TO JAP PRIDE INJURY TO CHINA

DIPLOMACY MAY LEAVE SHANTUNG UNSETTLED AND INJUSTICE CONTINUE

AS TO THE MUTSU

Another Piece of "Japanese Pride" Changes Conference Result.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

Copyright 1921, by Janesville Gazette. Washington—Compromise, which is the basis of all international agreement, has been found necessary to make the peace and settlement of the Japanese people.

Secretary Hughes, who started out with an insistence on the acceptance of the program he offered, has found the Japanese currents of resistance so strong as to make it necessary to give concessions. The Japanese argued for a greater amount of total tonnage and lost.

However, with a proposal that the Mutsu, the most powerful type of battleship yet built, should be retained. They argued that Japanese sentiment was wrapped up in the new vessel, that it would be difficult to scrap so important a ship without endangering the acceptance of the whole program.

So in order to satisfy the Japanese, the American delegates were persuaded that as a practical proposition the inclusion of the Mutsu would be just as effective in the long run.

Mutsu or No Mutsu.

Somewhat the same kind of tactics were used by the Japanese in the negotiations over the Peace of Paris. The mandate originally bestowed upon Japan was clasped tenaciously by the Japanese, although most of the exclusive rights and privileges which it might otherwise have been granted to the United States.

In a nutshell the American opinion seems to be that Japan can have all the superfluous concessions she wants if it makes little difference in substance. The American naval experts do not feel that the retention of the Mutsu remains, for they insist that the equivalent number of American battleships must be built.

POURS "GAS" INTO KEROSINE; IS HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Pontiac, Mich.—A man charged with involuntary manslaughter in connection with the deaths of Victor Weylin and seven children, following an explosion in their home near Royal Oak, Edward W. Keller, former employee of the Standard Oil company, was held in jail Friday on bond of $10,000. His examination was fixed for Monday.

Keller's arrest followed a grand jury investigation, at which A. E. Ralston, district sales manager for the oil business in the area, testified that he had seen Keller on the morning of the explosion, and that he had pumped 700 gallons of kerosene into a kerosene storage tank used to supply Royal Oak households.

According to authorities the explosion and fire followed an attempt to start a kitchen stove fire with kerosene.

They Sell Everything

Howard Hanson, 234 Terrace street, was the owner of some pool tables which he wanted to sell. Calling the Gazette classified ad department he ordered an insertion. Mr. Hanson received two calls before the tables were sold and the third inquiry brought resulting 2 tables were sold, and two more people are pleased with the results of classified advertising.

This shows that there is always someone in every locality who wants that article or articles who are no longer used. Why not turn these idle space takers into cash? The Gazette classified ad will find the right party for you.

Served 42 Years for Brutal Murder at Milton, in 1879

Hendrick Christiansen has been pardoned by Governor J. J. Blaine. The coming Christmas will be the happiest one of his 72 years on this earth.

Forty-two years ago his name was on the lips of every person in Southern Wisconsin, for on November 10, 1879, Christiansen pleaded guilty before Judge Conger in Rock county circuit court to the murder of Edward Fogarty, one-legged tin peddler of Milton. Fogarty was butchered to death with an axe and his body was then burned to a crisp.

The Fogarty murder followed intimate relations between Mrs. Fogarty and Christiansen, who boarded at the house. Railroad men passing through Milton Saturday night, Oct. 18, 1879, saw a large number of cleaver sticks burning in a field near the tracks. As they stopped at Milton, they reported it to the proprietor of the Milton house, and an investigation showed that the sticks were on the farm of John Alexander.

Nothing peculiar was noticed about the incident until Ormanzo Cottrell, servant of Ezra Goodrich, one of the most prominent pioneers of Rock county, visited the scene and discovered in the smoldering ruins of the house, a body, mangled and charred, the features beyond recognition. Blood and footprints made by a person walking in his bare feet were found.

Northwest from where the body lay was the home in which Edward Fogarty lived. He was married, with his wife and two children. It was a one and a half story building, typical of the one constructed in those days.

It did not require the services of a sleuth to trace the blood marks to the home of Fogarty. In the center of the one constructed in those days.

CONGRESSMAN IS POTOMAC SUICIDE

Note Tells of Impending Ruin; Friends Are Puzzled.

Berkeley, Cal.—A motive definitely explaining the death of Congressman John Arthur Elston, 47, whose body was found late Thursday in the Potomac river in Washington, still puzzled close friends and relatives here Friday, who said they were at a loss to account for a note found in the representative's pocket which was entangled in a chain of circumstances which spelled ruin.

Associates here agreed that Mr. Elston was disheartened over falling out of the race for reelection, which would have placed a proposed Pacific naval base at Alameda. His home district.

His business and financial affairs were in excellent shape, according to Frank L. Naylor, president of the Berkeley bank, of which Elston was a director. He was married and the father of two children.

Representative Elston, a Republican, was serving his fourth term from the sixth California district. He had been for some time a prominent figure in California politics.

ROBBERS MAKE OFF WITH 400 LB. SAFE

Monterey Cigar Store Is Looted of Money, Tobacco and Candy.

Thieves with a liberal supply of nerve and lots of ambition broke into the Smokers' Club, 307 Western avenue, sometime after 11 p. m. Thursday, took a quantity of cigars, cigarettes and beer and then carried away a 400-pound iron safe. The case is unique in local police annals—it marks the crime of undisciplined thieves.

The safe contained about $25, account books and papers belonging to Bruno W. Thom, proprietor of the cigar store and factory. A dollar and some small change were also missing.

Other loot consisted of: Five boxes of candy, the contents of which were made up of one $5 box, one $3 and three $2.50 boxes.

The thieves forced an entrance by breaking open a rear basement window. They then moved the safe, which is, however, except moving the safe. It is believed they tampered with the combination unsuccessfully, and then rather than waste any time, they picked it up and loaded it into a motor truck.

This theory is held although no car tracks were seen about the building when police made an investigation following the discovery of the robbery at 7 Friday morning.

That there must have been at least three men, possibly four, in the theft party is generally agreed. The thieves were seen leaving the building in a motor truck.

LORDS, COMMONS, RATIFY IRISH PACT BY BIG MAJORITY

OVERWHELMING VOTE DOWNS UNIONIST AMENDMENTS

WAIT DAIL MOVE

Long Secret Sessions Held Unfavorable Symptom in Dublin.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

London—Both houses of the British parliament ratified the treaty creating the Irish Free State by overwhelming majorities Friday afternoon.

After final arguments in favor of ratification, presented in the house of commons by Austen Chamberlain, the government leader, and in the house of lords, by Lord Birkenhead, both houses voted emphatic rejection of the unionist amendments to the king's address from the throne. If these amendments had been adopted, it would have had the effect of killing the treaty.

Doubt Dail Action.

There was slight hope that a decision would be reached Friday by the Dail, which again met in secret, and it was thought that the public session at which the vote would be taken would not be held until Saturday and possibly might be deferred until next week.

While nowhere was there the least doubt that the treaty would be ratified, a Westminster anxiety was expressed here as to its ultimate fate in Dublin, where prolongation of the Dail's secret sessions was regarded as an undesirable symptom.

Seeks Alternatives.

Edmond De Valera, who, according to some rumors, was winning some of the waviness to the opposition, was credited by the Daily Mail's correspondent with the intention of asking the Dail to vote cordially to the treaty which would alter its character, especially regarding the oath of allegiance. If there were adopted, he would, it was said, ask for their consideration at a fresh conference in London.

Another report said Eoin O'Duffy, secretary of the Gaelic League, who signed the agreement in London, was now strongly opposing its ratification. Another described the debate as being conducted over a volcano which might break the efforts of the peace makers.

Druggists to Go on Trial Jan. 6

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Beloit—After a preliminary hearing here Friday morning, January 6, was set as the date of the trial by Judge J. C. Smith of Henry Duvoreaux, Beloit druggist, on charges growing out of the special investigation being made into the source of booze at parties given by Beloit college students.

The men pleaded not guilty to three charges of selling liquor to minors, one charge of selling liquor to persons other than the one to whom the prescription was issued, and filling prescriptions before the date of entry.

Testimony of students brought out that the druggists had sold port wine to one on Nov. 4, 11 and 13 on a prescription blank issued to Henry Duvoreaux, Beloit college student of Beloit, Ill.

The men pleaded not guilty to have been for three gallons of port wine. Investigators have been unable to find the prescription in the records, or the druggists.

Beloit college was represented at the hearing by Attorney W. S. Rindell and the defendants by W. E. Arnold.

$320 CONSCIENCE

MONEY TINKLES IN COFFERS OF STATE

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Madison—"Conscience money" amounting to $320 was added to funds in the state treasury Friday following receipt of unpaid income taxes of long standing by Henry Johnson, state treasurer.

One man, a former Wisconsin farmer, who signed himself "Conscience," wrote in a letter, accompanying $270 in cash, that "as I sold my farm some time ago and failed to report properly to the income assessor, I will pay you my income tax now and credit same to tax, $200, and interest, $70." The letter was postmarked East Dubuque, Ill.

The other former tax payer said he owed $50 which should have been paid seven years ago. Cash was enclosed to cover the amount.

BODY OF MURDERED WOMAN HELD HERE

Brought to Oak Hill Vault from Shopiere Pending Probe in Iowa City.

The body of Mrs. Cal Van Brocklin, daughter of Mrs. Fred Rice, Shopiere, murdered together with her husband at the home in Franklinville, Ia., Sunday, was brought to Janesville Thursday afternoon, and placed in a vault in Oak Hill cemetery.

On request of the Iowa authorities investigating the murder, the body will be held in the vault pending the unraveling of the mysterious slaying. Funeral services for Mrs. Van Brocklin were held at Shopiere, Thursday, Rev. H. J. Collins officiating.

The body may be taken back to Iowa, before being returned to Shopiere for interment, in an effort to break down the story of Elmer Van Brocklin, brother of the murdered man, held for first degree murder, who steadfastly denies having killed the couple.

Fred Rice, step-father of the girl, who went to Iowa to investigate for himself following the murder, has returned home. The dead man's employer is reported to have partially identified Elmer Van Brocklin as the man whom he claims he saw engaged in the murder.

Yarn from the Van Brocklin home shortly after he heard the shot fired. Nothing definite which would be sufficient to fix the crime on the brother, has been uncovered.

Two Pictures of Tommy O'Connor Sent Out to Identify Him

Palmyra—The inquest over the body of the unidentified man in a creek on the Al Blackmore farm near Palmyra Wednesday, the scene of the hunt for "Jackie" Tommy O'Connor, who escaped from the Chicago jail Sunday, again is in Wisconsin. The incident is being investigated by several county investigators, headed by Coroner W. F. Best, Lake Geneva, are working on a clue provided by Dan Dasher, a farmer living three miles south of Lake Geneva, who reports he had been held up by bandits at the point of a gun and forced to give them food.

In line with the theory that the sunnier who killed the man whose body was found Thursday in Miracle creek, may have been O'Connor, it is pointed out that the road through Lake Geneva, highway 12, touches 22 at Eagle. It is probable, investigators believe, that the bandits who held up Dasher continued on highway 12 to Eagle and then through Eagle to Palmyra.

The bullet, which entered the man's head, being the right one, and the French proposals, it is pointed out, are to what tonnage France has asked, but if France has asked for 250,000 tons, it would represent about a 40 per cent increase in her present capital ship tonnage. In terms of modern dreadnaught or super-dreadnaught tonnage.

She has asked about approximately 165,000 tons, while Italy has asked for 125,000 tons.

France 40 Percent.

Should it ultimately be determined that the principle of the French and Italian ratios, as well as those of Great Britain, the United States and Japan, there will be no substantial increase in the present modern capital ship tonnage of the two European powers. France now stands on the basis of completed ships at less than a 40 per cent increase as stipulated in the five-three proposal should be taken as 100 per cent in other words, if France were bracketed into the five-three ratio, her present tonnage would be less than two and slightly slightly below that.

Joint Whole Program.

The British spokesman said Friday that the French proposals, it is pointed out, would "throw out the whole naval program." He declared it had met with distinct disapproval from the British delegation.

The British spokesman further declared Italy did not approve of the French proposal for, if it was carried out, Italy would be obliged to build in the same amount. This would mean an additional 700,000 tons to the American war fleet.

The 10 ships which France and Italy would build under this plan would cost roughly 1,000,000 pounds. It would be spending a half billion dollars in the 10 year period beginning in 1923.

If France builds 10 new 25,000 ton ships by 1935, it was said by the British spokesman, Great Britain and the United States would have to build in proportion. This added would require the expenditure of around 70,000,000 pounds to keep up in the building race.

BIG NAVY DEMAND OF PARIS UPSETS 5-5-3 SEA RATIO

BRITISH STANTLED BY FRENCH DELEGATION PROPOSAL

MORE THAN JAPS

Program Provides for 10 New Superdreadnaughts; Italy, to Follow

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington—The French delegation has presented a proposal for a great increase in the strength of the French navy that the British would upset the whole plan for a 5-5-3 naval reduction.

Although not yet revealed, the British understand that the French plan provides for the construction of ten 35,000 superdreadnaughts in the next years subsequent to 1923. These vessels of a type similar to the American battleship Maryland, would give France a capital ship tonnage of 350,000 as against 150,000 for Japan and 100,000 for the United States.

Italy, although indicating disapproval of such a building program, is said to have told the conference that France constructs 10 such ships, she must carry out a similar building program.

The combined French and Italian fleet thus would be some 200,000 tons stronger than the British or the American fleets, under the revised figures agreed on Thursday by the "Big Five."

Official Word Lacking.

The question of French and Italian naval ratios, as compared with the 5-5-3 standings assigned to the United States, Great Britain and Japan under Thursday's agreement, was taken up by the sub-committee of 14 meeting Friday.

No official word has come from the conference as to what tonnage France has asked, but if France has asked for 250,000 tons, it would represent about a 40 per cent increase in her present capital ship tonnage. In terms of modern dreadnaught or super-dreadnaught tonnage.

She has asked about approximately 165,000 tons, while Italy has asked for 125,000 tons.

France 40 Percent.

Bebe Daniels Tells "Us Girls" How She Arranges Coiffures

By ELOISE.

Bebe Daniels has long hair and doesn't care who knows it and if you want to look just like the always smiling Bebe she will help you to the extent of telling you just how she fixes her hair. First she brushes it, waves it and parts it on the side as shown at the upper left. Then she takes the ends in the upper right view. Next she takes the back, rolls it over her hand and makes the soft French roll seen at the lower left. Finally she puts the right side over the left, makes a few flat curls on the forehead, puts on a net and behold the finished product at the lower right.

The bobbed hair style is on the wane and has been for some time, according to the best experts on how to dress the hair, but nevertheless it was the bobbed hair style which was responsible for this coiffure which this attractive Miss Daniels affects. You see when the short haired girls decided to let their locks grow they found it difficult to manage when a certain length was reached. Some bright and deft maid discovered that if the ends could only be curled under or turned in and a net put on no one would know whether one's hair were two inches long or twenty. The style was becoming and so everybody started putting their hair in hiding, as it were, and no evidence of a knot or coil was to be seen on the fashionably coiffured woman. These with a wealth of hair tucked it in under just as their sisters with a handkerchief or a hair net were able to arrange one's hair this way if one has a handful, for the woman with a pile of hair has a hard time concealing the fact, as Miss Daniels can testify.

"Hootch" Toters Are Fined $500 or Six Months

Four men faced Judge H. L. Maxfield in municipal court, Friday, on liquor charges and three of them were sentenced in short order. The fourth having his trial set for Jan. 10.

Otto Dahlman and Joseph Hord, 20, Edgerton men caught by Chief Ben Springer, pleaded guilty to transporting liquor and each was fined $500 and costs or six months in jail. The sentence was made clear to them before they could spend all their leisure time in jail when not actually employed under contract.

"We were out walking in Edgerton, Sunday morning, and we found it in the stockyards," they told the court when asked about the three pints of moonshine found on them.

Joe Depke, Janesville, was fined $10 and costs or 15 days for drunkenness. Officer Patrick Stein testified against Depke when the latter pleaded not guilty.

Leo Hanson, Stoughton youth, arrested in Evansville by Chief Fred Gilman, denied the charge of liquor transportation and was bound over for trial Jan. 10, after a preliminary examination in which Chief Gilman was the only witness. The court at first fixed his bail at $500 but raised it to $1,000 upon information from Dist. Atty. S. C. Dunwiddie that Hanson was in the superior court at Stoughton with his father last August on a charge of operating a still.

"Several boys at a high school dancing party complained to me that their hair had been stolen and they suspected young Hanson who had been coming down from Stoughton to attend a lot of dances in Evansville," said Chief Gilman. "When I started out on my rounds I found two pint bottles partially full of moonshine which Hanson admitted he had bought for $2 a pint." A warrant was ordered by the court to be seized.

NAVIES OF FRANCE AND ITALY TO BE DETERMINED

(By Associated Press.)

Washington—Announcement of a final agreement between the United States, Great Britain and Japan on the American "5-5-3" naval ratio left the question of capital ship tonnage to be allotted France and Italy the outstanding matter to be determined by the new naval committee of 15 as it resumed Friday its task of whipping into final shape the prospective five power naval limitation agreement. The French group was understood to have begun presentation at the committee session Thursday of France's desire for a capital ship tonnage equal to that of Japan under the revised figures of the three power ratio agreement, which is 35,000 tons. This presentation was to be concluded before the committee Friday, but there were intimations that a long discussion might be necessary before a complete five power agreement could be presented for action by the conference itself.

Will Keep Two Big Ones

In the agreement on the "5-5-3" ratio, as formerly announced by the committee late Thursday, the United States and Great Britain acceded to Japan's desire to retain her newest battleship, the Mutsu, with proportionate changes in the American and British fleets. Under these changes, the United States will retain the nearly completed battleships Colorado and Washington, in place of the North Dakota and the Delaware, while Great Britain will build two ships and scrap four older ones when these are completed.

The increases in tonnage resulting for all three powers adhere to the original ratio of the Hughes proposal. The agreement was reached on the basis of a status quo understanding as to the fortification of the Pacific Islands.

RODD IN OFFICE TILL COURT RULES

Blaine Expected to Await Decision Before Taking Further Action.

Madison—Sheriff Hans Rodd of Oneida county probably will remain in control of the county jail and exercise his duties, despite the removal order of Governor Blaine, until the state supreme court has disposed of the case growing out of the action of the governor against him for refusing to obey an executive pardon order, according to expression here.

Argument on a writ of certiorari, granted Thursday by the supreme court on petition of Sheriff Rodd, has been set for Jan. 14. It may be some time after that before the court can determine the issues involved, and in the meantime it is believed that Rodd will be unhindered in holding his position.

Governor Blaine has expressed no intention of starting quo warranto proceedings through his appointee, Charles Asmundson, who already has taken possession of Rodd's place. Such an action would test the title of Rodd to his office in view of the executive removal order. It is thought that the governor is willing that the matter should be disposed of by the supreme court, through the action started Thursday.

Attorneys for Rodd will argue before the court that the governor exceeded his pardoning power in granting executive clemency to Peter Christ, labor leader, serving a term for contempt of court. They will contend that he had no authority to pardon Christ, and that the sheriff acted within his right in refusing to execute a pardon warrant in such a case.

It will be the governor's contention that he had his pardoning power and that under any circumstances the sheriff had no authority to disobey the executive, who is his superior officer, and to whom he is directly responsible.

The duties of sheriff and his responsibility to the executive is involved as well as the extent of the governor's pardoning power under the constitution.

It will be the governor's contention that he had his pardoning power and that under any circumstances the sheriff had no authority to disobey the executive, who is his superior officer, and to whom he is directly responsible.

Fight Insanity
Plea in Church
Murder Trial

Chicago—The state moved Friday to combat the insanity plea introduced for Harvey W. Church, charged with the murder of Bernard J. Daugherty and Carl A. Ausmus, automobile salesmen, last September. Church is on trial for the murder of Daugherty.

Dr. W. O. Krohn, state alienist, and Dr. Douglas Slinger, former state alienist, will be used in the attack on the insanity plea, the prosecution said. After listening to testimony by Dr. Frederick of Westfield, Wis., the Church family physician, Dr. Krohn said Church showed no symptoms of insanity as the result of a blood disease from which Dr. Frederick said Church's mother had suffered.

E. O. Church, father of the accused murderer, testified Friday that his son's favorite literature consisted of comic pictures. Attorneys for the prosecution announced Friday that they will request Judge Caverly to hold night sessions unless the defense makes better progress.

STOCKING OR CHRISTMAS TREE

When the fire place went out of fashion with the introduction of the cannon stove and the much-ornamented base burner or the big barrel-bodied chunk consumer—the one that you could use up all the unsplittable knots in—then the ceremony of hanging up the stocking on Christmas eve lost most of the savor. The Christmas tree was not generally used in the early days of the settlement of the west.

The fireplace provided ample room for the receipt of gifts and added a spice of the romantic and expectant with St. Nicholas coming down the chimney to fill the stockings, as all good St. Nicks do. But it is a stretch on the childish imagination to believe that the modern Santa Claus can enter a steam heated flat by that method.

Revision therefore of the story of Kris Kringle's arrival has had to be made to fit each case. Enter then the Christmas tree. Therefore it was mostly an ornament in the house or a thing of utility in the church, all festooned and hung with cornucopias of candy, nuts and raisins and the presents from the family distributed in open court.

The Christmas tree most highly prized is the balsam fir. It is not used for lumber, it has symmetrical lines that make it both picturesque and of the highest utility for decoration. There is no great loss to the forests by cutting Christmas trees. 5,000,000 are used annually in the United States. From Wisconsin the short needle pine is sent and in other states the Norway spruce and further south the scrub pine finds its way to market. So when we use the Christmas tree we are in no way injuring the forests.

The history of Christmas tree usage extends far into the mists of antiquity and its origin is difficult to trace. Some say it is connected with the legendary Tree of Time, Yggdrasil, the great tree of Norse mythology, within whose roots and branches heaven and earth are bound. Some say the custom may be traced to the Egyptians who, at the time of winter solstice, decorated their portals with branches of the date palm—the symbol of life triumphant over death. An ancient legend of the Scandinavians relates how the Christmas tree owes its origin to the "service tree" which sprang from soil once drenched with the blood of two slain lovers, and how each night during the Christmas season mysterious lights played among its branches. To this legend may perhaps be traced our custom of illuminating the tree when darkness comes. Among the Greeks, Christmas is known as the feast of lights.

Just so long as we have no great log fireplaces and there are children in this world who are going to be told about Santa Claus, just so long as there is love and affection and hope and a song in the human heart, so long will we have Christmas trees.

In the Pacific settlement we embraced the Tappertunity.

ALASKA AND FARMING.

Alaska is not increasing in population according to Scott C. Bone, governor of the territory. Strange to say the mining and fishing industries have fallen off in quantity and value while agriculture has made marked improvement. Considered almost beyond the line where products of the soil might be raised except as a show and not for profit, the garden and small farms of Alaska have given a new viewpoint to life in the far north. But without roads, with such long distances to cover for administrative effort the government of the territory is badly handicapped and perhaps will continue so for many years. One of the assets of Alaska is the tourist who went to that territory last year four times as strong as in 1919.

After lecturing for some months about "Crime Does Not Pay," a former convict picked up a mail pouch but was forced to admit the truth of the lecture title because he was caught and sent to prison for 7 years.

"Enormous" is the word to be used in connection with the water power projects now in view. 750 permits have been issued by the government in 16 months and a full development of over 16,000,000 horse power is contemplated. Wisconsin has but one and that on the Chippewa river where a company contemplates a 10,000 horse power project. The rivers of Wisconsin have never been developed for their power in anything like the manner possible and many a thousand of horse power goes to waste each year. It will take some time to develop those even with the water power law we have in Wisconsin.

Peace As a State of Mind

By FREDERICK J. HASKIN

Washington, D. C.—The reason we have war is that there are certain arrangements of cells in the brains of most men which cause them to become excited and to want to fight when bands play and bugles call and patriotic speeches are made.

Peace will be possible only when, by education, the mind of the race has been changed so that war, and all its attendant sights and sounds, cause a different reaction in men and women.

This is the opinion of George W. Crile, a celebrated American surgeon, who took advantage of the effect of war upon human beings, and who published his conclusions in a book called "A Mechanistic View of War and Peace."

Crile's views are of special interest just now, because the armament conference, if it is doing nothing else, is proving once more that whether we are to have war or peace is a question which depends upon the average man and not upon the governments.

Governments are war-making bodies in the nature of the case. The disarmament conference was called, not because the governments wanted peace or believed it was possible, but because public opinion demanded it. Now that it is gathered, the diplomats are usually looking for a way out for advantage in the way of armament. Meanwhile the common man feels his daily dose of platitudes about universal brotherhood and the like.

As Crile points out, universal brotherhood is largely a dream. Man is a fighting animal.

Crile is celebrated for his discovery that emotions in man produce absolute changes in his blood, and that the blood does not return to normal until those emotions have been discharged in action. When you become angry you feel a pressing need for action. If you cannot fight you will stamp your foot, wave your arms, kick the cat, or do something else "to relieve your feelings," as you say. This action which you crave is really a physical necessity. If you were repeatedly made angry and kept from all action and expression of your mood, you would die of acid in the blood, for anger produces a definite discharge of acid substances from your liver, and other internal organs. All of this Crile and others have proved beyond question.

What remains somewhat mysterious is why a given stimulus produces one emotion in one man and another emotion in another man. Why does danger make one man want to fight and another "want to run away"? Why does a band playing a patriotic air make most men want to fight?

Crile assumes that there are certain arrangements of brain cells in each individual which determine reaction to a given stimulus—and that these arrangements are dependent upon both heredity and education. In a word, your reaction to a given stimulus is partly determined when you are born but can be changed to some extent in the course of your life.

All men tend to react to many stimuli with a desire to fight and destroy. This is inevitable because man is a fighter. His history, has been fighting for his very life. He has fought the jungle beasts, the elements, all the forces of nature. Tribes of men, have fought with each other for survival, and so have individual men. Those who would not or could not fight have perished and have left no offspring. The best fighters have won the most mates and left the most descendants. Hence man is pre-eminently a fighting animal, to proceed on any other assumption is futile.

But men can fight in many different ways. For example, individuals used to fight with each other physically and destructively. Now there is comparatively little of that in civilized countries. Individuals fight each other in business and trade and proceed on any other assumption, is futile, dominoes to football, are mock battles. These things satisfy the fighting impulse without destroying the race.

As men have progressed, larger and larger units of organization have given up destructive fighting for competition. First families banded together, then tribes, then small nations and then larger ones. It is only among the nations themselves that destructive physical combat still persists. And it becomes more destructive all the time. As Crile points out, the worst result of international war is that it is destroying the race. The World War, with its ten millions of the best young men slain, was the worst blow that ever befell the human race. And yet we are now busily getting ready for possibly another world war, far more destructive than the last.

Why does this madness go on? Why have not nations learned to submerge their fighting power, as individuals have done?

Crile's answer is that, while education has carefully curbed the individual fighting impulse, it has carefully cultivated the national fighting impulse. The common man has been taught that he must not sit his neighbors throne and take his money, but he is taught that his nation may rightfully attack a neighboring nation with a run, sword, pistol, and starvation.

There is no real difference in moral value between the two forms of fighting, but the international fighting is usually dignified with a lot of fake moral issues.

The common man responds so quickly to a call for war because all of his education has been directed to prepare him for response to that call. He is always taught that war is glorious. From the first picture he sees in his school history books, on through his education, and his adult reading, he learns of war as a glorious adventure for brave men. He is taught to abhor individual fighting, but to reverence the mass fighting known as war.

When common men all over the world see war for just what it is, when the word awakens aversion instead of enthusiasm, then and then only will it be done, says Crile. He urges that war be painted at least fairly—that both sides be shown. As an example of what he means he prints some pictures in his book, two on a page. The lower picture on one page is a typical illustration from a school history, of a life and drum corps bravely marching to battle. Above it Crile prints a picture which he labels "The End Effect," of a man with his whole mouth and nose, and chin blown off by a hand grenade. Again he prints a typical patriotic painting of a cavalry charge, and above it a picture from the World War of a field after a charge, strewn with dead and writhing men.

If men were taught from childhood what war really is, what its actual effects are on the individual and on the race, what its benefits are and who gets them, the whole reaction to war would be modified. It would be twice as hard for politicians to make a war as it is now.

This task in education is probably a task for journalists and literature rather than for the schools. And there are signs that it is being done. For example, two of the most widely read books of the fall season are a novel which describes the actual experience of some Americans in the last war, with very detail of horror and hardship put in, and a book which tells what the next war will be like, with poison gas and air bombs in full action. Such books do more for the cause of international peace than sixteen disarmament conferences.

The last excuse of any police department for not arresting under the Sverston act. Also it makes three forces, city, state and federal, working together to see that the law is enforced.

That moving picture that started the riot in the Michigan penitentiary must have been worse than usual.

In the destruction of kingdoms, the animal seems safe, though several Kings of Beasts are in cages.

Christmas is coming, as the increased attendance at Sunday school certainly indicates.

THE LASTING JOY

What is better than the glad

Flash of little girl or lad

Down the street to greet you when

You are getting home again?

Where's the sight that's half so sweet

As the scampering of those feet

And the smiles of welcome true,

Flung so lavishly at you?

Tell you this, I'd rather be

Half so precious as the glad

Greeting of a girl or lad?

Once the touch of skill grows dim,

Fame shall turn away from him

And forget him while it bids

Cleverer hands and younger minds.

But the children faithful stay,

None can lure their love away.

For a younger king may cheer,

Fame may find a brighter wit,

And make him her favorite,

But the little girl or lad

Never meet a better day.

Noted Physician and Author

HOW INFANTILE PARALYSIS BEGINS

Dr. Lewis's F. Barker, Johns Hopkins professor, is more or less, let us hope, responsible for this assertion in his "Microscopic Medicine," which work bears the same relation to the "Doctor's Bible" (Osier's Practice) as does "The Two Years Before the Mast" does to Whittier's "Drift of the World in Eighty Days."

"When the disease (infantile paralysis) is prevalent each child should be given the same treatment as should be given to the handkerchief of another child, or that of a parent."

Which leaves for debate what is to be done about handkerchiefs when the disease is so prevalent. Of course I should urge that this excellent advice of Dr. Barker be followed even when there is no epidemic. However, I do not intend to discuss extraneous matters.

From the moment of infection until the patient experiences the first signs of the incubation period, is any where from one day to two weeks, the average being about 10 days.

The child then becomes very much as though coming down with tonsillitis or coryza (so-called "cold") or some other ailment.

After a few days he complains of sore throat, and perhaps some rigidity of the neck and perhaps some rigidity of the neck and perhaps some rigidity of the neck.

At this stage the physician may note an impaired or lost reflex nerve action in the limbs which is about to become paralyzed. The paralysis manifests itself in from one to seven days after the beginning of the illness.

About one-half of all cases of acute infantile paralysis are abortive or incomplete forms of the disease, that is, no definite paralysis remains, or only a transient weakness, or scarcely noticeable permanent weakness of some group of muscles. We know this only from serological tests.

From such abortive or transient cases to the crucial extensive paralysis there are all transitions. The severity probably depends on the size and virulence of the dose of infection.

Soft and Hard Water.

Which is better for drinking purposes, soft or hard water? It is quite as debatable as the other.

Dr. Brady will answer all ailments pertaining to health. Only inquiries of general interest are answered. This is a day of evil omens, since Jupiter and Saturn are both in malefic aspect Neptune is faintly helpful.

During this way there may be a lack of confidence that is detrimental to business.

The planetary government is not conducive to the best efficiency of men who direct the activities of large numbers of employees.

Danger of the sort of mental depression that encourages heads of big business enterprises to resign was in the air and decrease workers in read in the posting of the stars.

Saturn again indicates trouble in industrial centers and suffering due to lack of employment.

The seeds declare that through grave problems that will be numerous this winter, there will develop new systems of co-operation that will be of lasting benefit.

Agriculturists may suffer losses at this time, but they have the promise of large profits within the year.

Saturn, which has on the knees, heart spleen and bones may cause physical ills affecting these parts of the body.

Big Increase in Foxes
Hunters are complaining of the increase in the number of foxes, particularly in the towns of La Fayette and LaGrange. Twenty odd years ago fox hunting was a regular sport, but it was abandoned because the animals became almost extinct. But in the meantime they have multiplied and this week three have been brought to the County Clerk's office for bounty and all were killed by rabbit hunters: Orrin Brantford, John O'Brien and Anders Larsen. The clerk punches three holes in the base of one of the ears, which he carefully disfigures the pelt. Hereafter the scalp of the animal had to be removed and destroyed which materially affected the value of the skin.

WISCONSIN TOBACCO MARKET.
Berkton—The Wisconsin Tobacco Reporter states that the local market for the 1921 northern developed leaf, Tuesday, December 14, was somewhat active. The local men in Wisconsin and Michigan started the local market. P. McIntosh, the Belknap, Wis., man, was the leading buyer. He was looking for select goods, but heavy buying caused him to buy some of the lower grades. The prices were steady. The local market was somewhat more active. The prices were steady. Toward the last of the week the Lorillard company sent men to the Wisconsin tobacco fields and found the crop in good condition. The prices were steady. The local market was somewhat more active. The prices were steady.

The 1921 movement out of first hands continues at its usual pace. The market is still active. The prices are almost rigid between six and eight cents. While the grower is not having his crop with very much of a surplus, he knows that the chances of an early improvement in the price of his goods are remote, since the market is so tight. He is therefore supplying his goods at low prices.

The C. J. Sweeney & Son warehouse in Edgerton began its operations Monday morning. They are handling 1200 tobacco now, employing between 20 and 30 hands, expecting to run until the holidays. Whether the warehouse will go right on and assist of the 1921 market, the firm has bought in the northern section is not yet determined. The new line of the operation of the warehouse in addition to the large steamship force employed by the Erie Tobacco company, which has given work during the past months, has added to the Christmas cheer.

These pretty Russian refugees, once of wealthy families and for this reason exiled by the Bolsheviks, are in Constantinople awaiting transportation to the United States. They admit that one of the chief reasons for their coming to this country is their fondness for American men, four of whom they hope to marry.

GIVING THE SOP TO SOUTH CHINA
The naval experts are the last people in the world to object to an increase in tonnage for any country so long as it is proportionate. Deep in their hearts they have not looked with any particular joy on the prospect of scrapping new battleships upon which so much money has been spent. The Japanese desire to keep the Mutsu might appear to have given.

Proposition Sought
Still the naval experts are the last people in the world to object to an increase in tonnage for any country so long as it is proportionate. Deep in their hearts they have not looked with any particular joy on the prospect of scrapping new battleships upon which so much money has been spent. The Japanese desire to keep the Mutsu might appear to have given.

Naval Affairs to the Front
The arms conference has relegated for eastern questions to a secondary place for the moment while all attention is concentrated on naval matters. The hope is that a plan of session may be held on Saturday of this week in order that the naval agreement may be formally proclaimed.

But while the conference has put the far eastern tangle aside tentatively, the prospects are that the most acute situation of all has yet to develop with respect to China. The delegates from the latter country have been sitting patiently waiting for the conference to accomplish something concrete for China besides mere declarations of principle. The Chinese have been given promises and pledges of the same kind before. While they are not openly expressing any disappointment, they admit privately that the new treaty places no restraint upon the Japanese with respect to the mainland of Asia and merely binds them not to interfere in the rights of other powers in the Pacific islands.

WILSON PROUD TO BE COMRADE OF SOLDIER
Washington—Ex-President Wilson has been elected to New Year greetings from veterans of the Rainbow division as follows:
"I am proud to regard myself as a comrade of all the men in the American Expeditionary Forces. It therefore affords me greater pleasure to receive from a group of them such a greeting as is conveyed to me by your letter of Dec. 9."
"Sincerely and appreciatively yours,"
"WOODROW WILSON."

The net of the whole situation is that if the American delegation concedes another point to Japanese pride and refuses to interfere in the settlement of the Chinese-Japanese disputes, the far eastern situation as far as the Chinese are concerned will have been very little improved by the Washington conference. The Chinese officials here are apprehensive that America's readiness to yield to Japan on the Yamp mandate, as well as the American decision to alter the original Hughes naval proposals in order to satisfy Japanese pride and sentiment, is an omen of Japanese-American cooperation which spells trouble for China.

report at a later date—perhaps a year or two hence. There has been no such pressure to settle the Chinese problem as has influenced the course of the delegates on either the naval or the Anglo-Japanese alliance. The conversations concerning Shanghai are not viewed hopefully in Chinese quarters.

LOCAL CRIPPLE IN FLORIDA ON TOUR IN SPECIAL "FLIV"

Linn Handy, self-supporting Janesville cripple, has reached Florida on his "fliv" car, a tour of the south, according to a letter received by his brother, Sergt. Charles Handy of the police department. Although totally without the use of his legs, he is touring in his own specially equipped car, operated entirely by his hands, making his money as he travels by making signs.

Writing from Albany, Ga., he tells of the people in that section of the country and describes conditions. There are thousands of northern tourists there, he says.
"The people down here call the 'fliv' car tourists 'Yanks,' and we call them 'Rebs,'" writes Mr. Handy. "The people are poor and haven't much money to buy anything but necessities. The old negro women down here do more than chew tobacco—they eat it."

"A policeman in Phoenix, Ala., was shot the day I was there but they didn't catch the man who did it."
"There are a lot of tourists in this section—you would think the whole north was down here. A lot are going back home because their money has given out. The 'Rebs' say, 'We pile the berries in the summer and the 'Yanks' in the winter time.'"
"The roads in Tennessee and Alabama are rough and rocky, but Georgia has good roads. The convicts keep up the roads in this state. I have seen lots of them at work, most

HELICOLAND TO BE DENUDE OF ARMS WITHIN FEW MONTHS

London—The great German fortress of Heligoland probably will be completely demolished by next April. Its demolition has been in progress for two years under the supervision of an international commission headed by Admiral Sir Edward Charlton, who is said to be satisfied that the island can never again be a menace to the Allies.

When the work of destruction is complete, it will be inspected by the commission and then the island is to be handed back to Germany, under the provisions of the Peace Treaty.
The commission have taken nothing for granted, but naval officers have watched the great guns cut into pieces and have demanded that the scrap metal be produced when the Germans reported that they had destroyed cartridges, cases, fuses, etc. Besides, they have personally watched the burning of vast stores of explosives. It is understood that very little in the way of warlike stores can have been concealed by the Germans.

The gun emplacements and harbor works have been destroyed and batteries of howitzers and aircraft guns demolished.
To make certain that Heligoland can not again be utilized as a base upon which to build a harbor for warships, the commission has placed blocks of stone and concrete about the bed of the harbor so that dredging will not be possible. Eventually it is believed the harbor will be destroyed by the sea.

SUGAR PLANT SHUTS DOWN THIS WEEK

1921 Season Declared a Success—Robbel Is Honored at Banquet.

Good fellowship prevailed during the banquet held by the employees of the Rock County Sugar company in the factory hotel, Thursday night, attended by 150 from all departments of the Janesville plant. The banquet was in honor of A. W. Robbel, factory superintendent, and marked the closing of the season of operations for the sugar company.

The run is to be completed this week, and it was further announced that work for the factory season will be finished early next week. Employees and executive officials expressed sincere satisfaction over the success of the season's work. It was declared the factory had the best run in its history in the matter of plant efficiency.

Superintendent Robbel has been engaged in directing sugar beet production for 22 years and has been an official at the Janesville plant for six years. At the close of the banquet he was presented with a watch chain, emblem and knife.

"Whatever success we have had during the last year was through a better spirit among the employees, resulting in greater cooperation," stated Mr. Robbel. Several speakers expressed hope that at future dates the Janesville plant could be run for a longer period of operation or the year around. William Probst is general manager of the plant.

During the feast there was orchestra music and then songs and recitations by Misses Nae, Eleanor and Delva Sorenson.

C. J. Welcomme was toastmaster and had numerous witty and clever humorous remarks. Short speeches were made by Ralph Farley, Lawrence Nichols, Frank Cody, L. Black, E. W. Wall, Edward Stabler, S. C. Sorenson, Mark Hunter, William Knecht, Fred Gaffey, George Rogers, Harold Durnaster, Frank Barker, Samuel Boylan, George Rose, James Klok, R. Troon, George Nelson, Norman Paul, Andrew Walker, George Cunningham, Harry Johnson, Clyde and Alvin Winderover, Shi Chau, Canton, China, Arthur Moore, W. W. Wool, and others.

It is planned to make the banquet an annual affair.

Kiwanis Club in Annual Meeting Elects Officers

Underlying the first annual meeting of the Kiwanis club, held at the Grand Hotel, Thursday evening, was the spirit of doing a year's work in 1921 in the highest service to the community. Reports for the first year by the secretary showed many activities, social and otherwise. At the present time there are 71 members. The club has a record of 82 per cent of attendance since it was organized. The officers for the year are: President, Oscar Nelson; Vice President, Harry Haggart; Secretary, Raymond Peterson; Treasurer, Norman Paul; and Directors, Floyd D. Dennison and George Jacobs, members of the board of directors.

Discussion of business and plans for next year took a wide range and was marked by enthusiasm. A committee was named to take charge of Christmas gifts for needy people and to continue during the winter. For the next meeting, December 22, there will be a members' Christmas tree and each one is to receive a gift. Then there is to be a big meeting with a program of interest at the luncheon on the 29th.

Report on the minstrel show was made. The note given for the money advanced to the military companies last summer for entertainment expenses has been paid. The net proceeds of the entertainment was $305.48 and after paying the note the balance was ordered by the board of directors to be placed in the military fund to be used as occasion demanded.

It was brought out in the secretary's report and from talks by members that the club, less than a year old has made wonderful strides as a community force. That its membership could be increased largely by the "We Built" the "Germania" slogan of the Kiwanis International of which the Janesville club is a member, has been more than carried out in the local club. There are evidences that Kiwanis clubs are wanted in Evansville, Edgerton, Delavan and Elkhorn and the Janesville club is to be sponsor for these new organizations to be made soon.

EDNA WALLACE HOPPER AT FIFTY-ONE RETURNS TO STAGE LOOKING EIGHTEEN

Edna Wallace Hopper before and after her three-day "beauty sleep."

Edna Wallace Hopper, first wife of De Wolf Hopper and a musical comedy favorite of two decades ago, has put the reverse English on the Rip Van Winkle act. A few weeks ago Miss Hopper, at the age of fifty-one, went to bed for a real beauty sleep. She retired on a Tuesday and on Friday she woke up twenty years younger. In other words, Miss Hopper, looking all of forty, had her face made over by plastic surgery and now is wearing her new face which looks not a day over eighteen. Slits were made in her skin at either side of the head and the skin drawn up and superfluous skin cut out. After three days the stitches were taken out and now the "young" Edna Wallace Hopper is playing in Shubert vaudeville and telling other women how to become young again.

COMMITTEE PLANS DIRECT ACTION ON GERMAN REPARATION

Paris.—The allied reparations committee, meeting Friday to consider the German notice of inability to pay the next two installments in full and requesting extension of time, virtually agreed that the commission itself should take definite action on the request instead of referring the question to the allied governments. Dr. Mayer, the German ambassador, delivered to Premier Briand Friday a copy of the German reparations note.

Moore Defeats Champ Buff-Cards Meet Denver Friday

CHICAGO SCRAPPER DOES NOT PLEASE MILWAUKEE CROWD

Milwaukee, Wis.—Pat Moore of Chicago defeated Johnny Buff of Jersey City, bantamweight champion, in their ten round bout before the National Athletic club here tonight. The champion was unable to land effectively because Moore's freakish defense and a ward attack.

Three of the rounds were even, while Buff had a shade in two. But tried for a K. O. all through the fight, but Moore always managed to keep out of harm's way.

Little damage was done to either fighter, but the large crowd booed Moore as he left the ring because of his clownish style of fighting. A big crowd saw the battle. It was estimated that 3,500 persons were in the building and that the receipts were close to $18,000. Chicago furnished the greater part of the crowd which included men in all walks of life.

Pat Moore beat Johnny Buff (10): Joe Dawson beat John Cummings (10): Eddie Thatcher beat Joe Dempsey (8): Pete Johnson beat Harry Schuster (4).

Receipts at the Johnny Buff-Pat Moore fight here Tuesday night, fell somewhat short of expectations, which localized Friday the gate amounting to $16,500. Buff drew $6,000 as his end and Moore about $3,600.

Buff landed one damaging blow in the third round, when he sent Pat spinning into the ropes, but could not follow it up. Buff tired perceptibly in the latter rounds.

H. S. to Open Season Friday

Playing the first game of the season, Janesville high school's basketball team journeyed to Delaun School last night to play the State School for the Deaf. Delaun has an entirely new team this year. The following men will go: Seaman, Gridley, McDermott, McCusker, Lane and Knip.

MARQUETTE UNABLE TO BOOK GAMES; HAVE NO COURT

Milwaukee—According to Coach Murray and Manager Corbett, Marquette university, has lost out on several first-class games of basketball because of the fact it is unable to accommodate the crowd which the contests would draw.

Ohio and the Michigan Aggies will venture into this vicinity in near future and have asked for games with Marquette but the offers will have to be rejected. It would be necessary to lease the Auditorium for these contests and as far as can be ascertained there is but one night this season that the Auditorium will be available. The Y. M. C. A. floor will also be in use at all times so there is no hope in that direction.

The University of Indiana on their way to play Minnesota, will stop in Milwaukee for a game on Feb. 2 with Marquette. It is possible the Auditorium may be secured for that night.

A jaunt through Arkansas, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana and Indiana will take the squad out of Milwaukee from Dec. 20 to Jan. 4. On the trip, the five will meet the Arkansas Aggies, Memphis A. C. Birmingham A. C., Tulane university, Vanderbilt, Evansville, Indianapolis, and Vincennes, Ind. etc.

Numerous other dates on the schedule are still tentative and will not be completed until the squad departs.

The Hilltoppers are turning out in first class shape according to Coach Murray, and expect to show some good work.

Duford and Fitzgerald are working regular on the guard positions. Regan and Cardinal are both trying to outstrip the other at center and "Red" Dunn and Quinn are fixtures at forwards.

BRINGING UP FATHER

7 Game World Series in 1922; Ruth May Train

(By Associated Press.)

New York—Major league baseball owners voted to re-establish the seven game world series, instead of the nine game series in effect for the last three years.

American league club owners were unanimous for the change, while National league magnates voted 7 to 1 against it. Inasmuch as under a joint agreement each league has only one vote, Commissioner Landis, who is authorized to cast the deciding ballot in case of a tie, voted for the seven game series.

Baseball Commissioner Landis came out strongly for restoration of the draft in an address this afternoon before the Baseball Writers' association.

Ruth May Practice

New York—Babe Ruth, who defied Judge Landis last fall and went to Europe, can play in the spring exhibition games with the Yankees. He was suspended five weeks of the championship season, but that does not ride for the training trip. Judge Landis says so himself.

Milwaukee—The Milwaukee baseball club and President Otto Berthel were sued in federal court for $12,250 alleged to be due Benjamin B. Moulton of Providence, R. I. The loss to Beloit was only the second of the season. Friday's game starts at 8:30 p. m.

White Eagle started for the Denver club in Beloit Thursday. Another five minutes, according to Janesville spectators, and Beloit would have been on the small end of the score. The Denver outfit is perhaps the fastest that has come here so far this season. They traveled 250 miles from Shelbyville, Ill., Thursday in order to play at Beloit.

Urge Bowlers Here to Bid for State Meet

State Assemblyman Frank Prescott, Milwaukee, assistant secretary of the Wisconsin Bowling association, for the past seven years, and W. E. Barnes, Milwaukee, publicity man for the state tournament at Madison, were in conference with Frank Sinclair, president of the Janesville Bowling association Thursday. They are making a tour of Southern Wisconsin to boost entries for the state meet opening at Madison Jan. 26 and running for five weeks.

From Janesville they will go to Beloit, Stoughton, Edgerton, Evansville and other towns within a radius of 75 miles of the Capital city in an effort to get those towns to send large delegations to the pin classic. They ask for 20 teams from this city. While here, these men discussed the matter of bringing the following state tournament to Janesville. While it would mean the construction of 18 new and up-to-date alleys here, it would bring about 5,000 men to Janesville and business estimated at between $50,000 and $75,000. Green Day is already planning to make a strong plea for the meet.

Assemblyman Prescott spoke before the Kiwanis club Thursday night and was enthusiastic over the reception given him. When he left for Milwaukee Friday morning, he declared that he believes he can get 25 teams out of Janesville.

It is possible that "Billy" Fenske, secretary of the state association, will be in Janesville next week to speak to the local organizations.

New York—The four steps in the downfall of a drinker of bootleg whiskey were outlined succinctly by Magistrate Stanley in suspending sentence on Julius Gorman, who pleaded guilty of intoxication.

"Last night you landed in the station house," said the magistrate. "Today you land in court. Tomorrow, if you continue to drink that whiskey you will land in Bellevue Hospital, and the next day you will land in the morgue."

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are over just a little hard hearing or have head noises go to your doctor and get a course of Eustachian (double strength), and add to it a pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Closed nostrils open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone losing hearing or who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

SOLDIER'S DIARY TELLS VIVID TALE

Civil War Experiences Told in Notes of Late Chas. Dickinson.

Interesting incidents of Civil war days and the 22nd Wisconsin volunteer infantry are described in the diary of Charles F. Dickinson, Madison, who died last month. Mr. Dickinson enlisted from Edgerton, Aug. 11, 1862, and served in Co. E, 22nd Wisconsin, in the 22nd Wisconsin volunteer infantry. He went to camp at Madison and was mustered into service September 2. He stayed in camp drilling until Sept. 16 when the company was ordered to the front at Cincinnati to repel the rebel raid on that city.

"We stayed there until Sept. 23, then crossed the river at Covington, Ky.," says the notes in his diary. "The brigade was formed composed of the 22nd Indiana, 19th Michigan and 22nd Wisconsin commanded by Col. Coburn. We stayed at Camp Mitchell and as we had no tents, we slept on the ground in the rain. On Sept. 25, I was sergeant of the guard, and as no tents had arrived, slept on the ground with nothing but the blue canopy above."

An interesting incident involving the freedom of a slave, is told under Dickinson's notes for Oct. 23. "Col. Utley had some trouble with Judge Robinson. One of his slaves, a young mulatto boy, came to our regiment and went to work for Capt. Goodrich, of Co. H, as a servant. Judge Robinson came to camp and demanded his property and was told by Col. Utley that if the boy wanted to go with him, he could take him, otherwise he would remain. The judge was very indignant and declared he would take the slave out of the ranks as they passed through Georgetown the next morning. Utley notified him if there was any trouble over slave."

There was only one Japanese in Rock county when the 1920 census was taken, a total of 60 being recorded for the state, 34 of whom were in Dane county and 26 in Milwaukee. The figures show Rock county has 1.6 percent of the Japanese population in Wisconsin. There were no Japs here in 1900 record, and one in the 1910 census. Of 254 Chinese in the state, 19, or seven percent, are listed in Rock county. Dane county has 28 and Milwaukee, 67 Chinese. Six Chinese are recorded in the 1910 census of Rock county and eight in 1900. There are eight Indians in the county as against 9,111 in the state.

FIRST WOMAN TO SERVE ON TORONTO BOARD OF HEALTH

Mrs. Sidney Small.

Mrs. Sidney Small of Toronto, Canada, one of the two women elected to the city council, is the first woman to serve on the Toronto board of health. She is at present in Washington attending the sessions of the arms conference.

"We were elected to the board of health," said Mrs. Small, "and we were very glad to go to bed, completely tired out after sleeping half the last night with a dead man. Mr. Dickinson with his brother Hubert, four years his junior, were known to all Edgerton as the Dickinson boys, the latter name, they were proud to be called as they were boys. They were constant companions throughout life and it is claimed they were never known to miss a baseball game or a circus performance. Hubert Dickinson's son is second vice president of the Tobacco Exchange bank of Edgerton."

FAVOR RESTORING GOLD STANDARD

Devaluation Proposals Fail to Impress British Financiers.

(By Associated Press.)

London—Suggestions advanced by certain economic theorists to stabilize the value of the British pound at 16 shillings gold, thereby reducing the American exchange from $4.85 to a new parity of $3.65 to the pound and creating a gold premium of 33 percent, do not meet with the approval of practical British bankers.

Sir Charles Addis, president of the Institute of Bankers, in an inaugural address to that body, made a strong plea for continued efforts to restore the gold standard.

He said that a return to pre-war parity could not be accomplished unless new and unexpected inflation should take place in America without a considerable amount of further deflation in Great Britain.

Devaluation proposals, he declared, were premature, inappropriate and inexpedient. He refused to believe that the British people "could be induced to trample on their monetary past and to relinquish the dearly purchased gold standard, which they believed to be bound up with the prestige of their national credit and their supremacy in international finance."

PETROGRAD RENTS BOOSTED TO 2,000 TIMES OLD AMOUNT

(By Associated Press.)

Revol. Esthonia—New York tenants who wax angry when landlords ask 15 to 20 percent to their apartment rents have less cause for complaint than tenants in Petrograd. By official decree, according to a radio dispatch from Moscow, Petrograd rents have been increased by 2,000 times the amount paid on Oct. 1.

Previous to last summer, no rents at all were paid under the Bolshevik regime. In accordance with the new economic policy nominal rents were instituted, several months ago, persons paying perhaps 2,000 rubles monthly for a large apartment.

This sum, in American money, represented about two cents monthly, but was, perhaps, one-fifth of the tenant's monthly income.

The raise in rents was simultaneous with the inauguration of a new scale of greatly increased wages, some persons having their salaries increased by as much as 500 or 1,000 times.

SANITARIUM STILL BIG COUNTY ISSUE

Save Money by Sending Patients Out of County, Some Argue

Building of the proposed Rock county tuberculosis sanitarium on the Sprackling site north of Janesville is now an important county issue. Decision by the supervisors to go ahead and obtain full plans, specifications and estimates of cost has resulted in a discussion of whether it is advisable for the county to spend $100,000 necessary for the construction of the hospital and the additional amounts to equip the institution and then operate it successfully. Estimates furnished indicate the completed sanitarium will cost $120,000 counting interest charges and full expenses.

Under the present system, tubercular patients from the county, unable to pay for full care in the sanitariums, are sent out of the county and in the case of the Jefferson county sanitarium, of which the Rock county pays half and the state half.

Views of County Nurse. In the opinion of County Nurse Anna Luetscher, there are at least 40 people in the county who should be given sanitarium treatment. Reports made to the county officials show that few county sanitariums, if any, pay for themselves. It is stated that it costs $29 to $35 a week for the care of patients in the Jefferson hospital.

There is no question but what it is cheaper to send our patients out of the county to other hospitals but it is getting so we cannot find places for our patients," stated Miss Luetscher. "I have had trouble in finding places for a number of afflicted people who needed attention at once. Then too, a county sanitarium would pay in results other than saving money. Treatment is the more effective when given near home. Also more people would take the sanitarium treatment with a county sanitarium consequently lessening the danger of spread of the disease."

Figures On Cost. In 1918 Rock county paid the state $3,434 for expenses of patients in other sanitariums. In 1919, $6,592 and in 1920, $4,531. The last amount was reduced according to the health officials, because there was not sufficient room available for all the people suffering from tubercular afflictions who desired treatment.

The county spends from $4,000 to $6,000 a year to pay for its tubercular patients, who are committed to other county or state sanitariums. Rock county was fifth in the state in reporting the number of "T. B." cases and third in the state in the number of deaths from the disease in 1920.

BUILDING ACTIVITY IN WEST. San Francisco.—According to the Federal Reserve bank here, building activities in this district have reached the highest point since the bank has kept records, which was in 1917. EARNS $1 A DAY ON FARM; $50 DAILY AS OWNER OF OIL WELL

Franklin, Ky.—James Poole of Simpson County, Ky., is a "dollar a day" farm hand, yet his income is $51 a day.

Land that he paid $10 for several years ago now is yielding oil that brings him $50 a day to earn on a farm. But Poole keeps on working for a dollar a day, board and lodging. He deposits the royalty checks and lives on the dollar he earns.

He is married and has two children.

Ask Aid for Americans, Deduplicate in Manila

(By Associated Press.) Manila.—The American Chamber of Commerce has appealed to United States army headquarters in Manila for aid in the deduction of nearly 100,000 American soldiers who are stranded in Manila without work and lacking sufficient means to return to the United States. The Chamber of Commerce suggests that these men be given employment by the United States government. Twenty of the deduplicate are mechanics.

Big Unemployment Fund to Japanese Workers

(By Associated Press.) Osaka, Japan.—The greatest unemployment allowance ever granted to laborers in the history of Japan has just been given to 31 employees of the Asahi Glass company. This company has been discharging its employees gradually since last spring owing to the dullness of the glass market. Thirty-one of the most skilled and industrious workers survived the storm until this last week when they were also let out. They were given a discharge allowance of $17.12, to be divided among the 31 men.

HERE'S RECIPE FOR APPETIZING POTION WITH 4-LEGGED KICK

Kansas City.—Justice A. P. Fonda of Independence has a big jug under his desk and his office in the Western building. When asked the other day what he had in the jug, for the judge said: "I have that for my home brew. It is a harmless beverage and to which the federal authorities have no objection. This is the recipe: Follow a bullfrog three miles some evening when he is taking his daily exercise and pick up the hops, then add 10 gallons of tap water to the hops, also a bar of home made soap and five pounds of shellac. Soak the mixture for 24 hours, keeping it well stirred, then strain through the sock of an I. W. W. to keep it from working. Add one grasshopper to give it the kick."

This has resulted in increase in volume of business for lumber mills of the district, which report greater sales than any time since May, 1920.

200 OUT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT ZION

Prayer Part of All Work There, Voliva Disciple Says.

Can you imagine starting a Janesville council meeting with a prayer or important task master pending with the ringing of a chapter from the Bible and the mayor leading in prayer?

In the City of Zion, near Chicago, prayer is a part of all undertakings, explained P. N. Cunningham during his lecture to 200 people Thursday afternoon in the Apollo-theater. People in Zion don't use tobacco, never swear, nor do the women wear short skirts or open gashes. All pray before they work or even when they talk politics. Motion pictures of the city founded by John Alexander Dowie were shown.

Wilbur Glenn Voliva—who is reported to declare the world is flat—is the general overseer of the city founded on prayer and Bible teachings, now having a population of 6,000.

Make Right Offenses. "We do not make church members but disciples of Christ," declared the speaker. "We require that people live their religion in actions, not words. Otherwise religion is not worth a continental. The great people in the hearts of most people."

It was explained that when a man guilty of theft is received into Zion he is obliged to pay back all that was stolen and if guilty of lies to confess to them to those to whom the Zionites lied.

That there was no unemployment in Zion, no work or teaching without religion, was explained by the speaker.

Zion Industries. "Zion City was started with prayer, we pray for the sick and for our work in every institution and in every home," it was explained. Pictures of the Zion industries, bakeries, lace factory, and candy shops, as well as the school, as well as of the tabernacle and religious phases of the city, where it is against the law to smoke or swear. REG'AR REAL ROUGH LIKKE BOTTLED IN ARKANSAS "BARN"

Walnut Ridge, Ark.—Though Walnut Ridge recently has inaugurated "blue laws," law and order leagues and other means by which officials are combatting law violators, occasionally they find someone who totally—or nearly so—ignores the law's sanctity. One fellow, it seems, has gone so far as to advertise the fact.

This following advertisement was placed up on the street here the other day:

"Pure Cache River Korn Likker. Bottled in barn. Made in the backwoods of the river. Eastern Arkansas by an old-time blockader that don't give a damn for laws and prohibition. As talked on the Walnut Ridge market by all the high class bootleggers for five bones a pint, and worth every cent of it. Swearin' to be strong enough to make you drunk as the devil in 10 minutes and mean enough to make a baby bullfrog spit in a whale's face."

PLAYING "HOOKEY" FAST DYING OUT

Only 7 Cases in City Schools Since Sept. 1—None Last Month.

Children are adopting a different attitude towards school life than they had a decade ago—the November report of Miss Rosemary Enright, attendance officer for the Janesville schools, shows. For the first month in the history of Miss Enright's work and probably in the history of the city schools, there has not been one case of truancy, or "hookey."

Miss Enright's work was praised by Supt. Frank O. Holt, speaking at the December meeting of the board of education Monday night as being largely responsible for bringing about this good condition. There were 293 days of school missed by the children of the city schools during November but everyone of these was with some legitimate excuse accepted by the school authorities.

Illness is responsible for a large percentage of missed days of school in November. 1,859 days are credited to it. Other causes are illness and death in family; 88; help at home; 171; care of babies; 9; weather; 46; missed bus; 2; accidents; 78; over-sleep; 9; lack of clothing; 8; lack of shoes; 22; out of city; 97; moving; 12; pediatrics; 2; religious holiday; 9; parental neglect; 21; social; 19; and miscellaneous, 17.

There have been but seven cases of truancy this school year.

Enrollment, October 30. In the schools was 4,229 according to Miss Enright's report. In November there were 43 withdrawals and 56 new children enrolled, 31 of whom came from out of town. One was from Blackburn, Eng., and one from Boston, Italy.

Principal George Sanford sees a different attitude on the part of high school children also. He stated that there are no more absentees today than there were five years ago when there were just half as many children in school.

Factories Have Bigger Payrolls

Washington.—According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, there were 460,000 more wage earners in the payrolls of manufacturing industries in October than there were in July. This increase does not include the mining, transportation, railroad and agricultural industries or highway construction.

WEALTHY MADISONIAN IS SANTA FOR POOR

Madison—Victor H. Arnold, wealthy Madison citizen and president of a local bond company, does not want any charitable organizations or empty stocking clubs to aid him in making the poor of Madison happy during the holidays. He assumes individual responsibility for seeing that Madison's poor are well fed, well clothed and kept warm on Christmas day. In a statement on Wednesday Mr. Arnold declared he would foot all bills for food and clothing for Madison's poor. Simultaneously he issued a statement to all merchants in Madison, saying that the orders of the poor of Madison should be filled and that their bills would be paid when presented to his office.

Russian Trade Pacts Disappoint Nations

The Hague.—Foreign Minister Kurenbek told the Netherlands Parliament the other day that England, Germany and Norway were greatly disappointed over the results of their commercial treaties with Russia. He said Russian production was so important that barrier was impossible, important that barrier was impossible, that the economic conditions in Russia were getting worse and and that the Russian gold supply was rapidly decreasing. The minister was skeptical about opening diplomatic relations with Russia.

SHIP MATERIAL FOR BRIDGE VIA MAILS

Waverille, Cal.—Parcel post was used recently to bring Waverille material for a cable suspension bridge across the Trinity river near here. The bridge is 240 feet long and seven feet wide and nearly all the construction is of steel. All the material, except the flooring, which was out here, was shipped from Sacramento in the mail. The bridge is designed for pedestrians and saddle horses.

KEEPING THE PROFILE YOUNG

The other day I was talking to a woman who said she had what is known as a commanding platform presence. That is, when she stood before an assembly of people, she was able to make them like her and to be influenced to her opinion because of her attractive personality. She seemed to be a woman of about 35, and she was remarkably pretty. This was my impression as I entered the room late in the afternoon.

I had to walk around the side of the hall to find a seat, so that when I looked at her again, it was no longer her full face, but her profile that I saw. Suddenly she said to me, "You know, I have been told that there were two baggy pouches of flesh under her chin."

A double (or triple) chin will spoil even the prettiest face. The sad part is that it is absolutely unnecessary. No woman need spoil her appearance with a double chin. If she begins treating herself in time, of course, if the body is too fat, some of this extra flesh is certain to form under the chin as well as over the abdomen and the back of the shoulders. A good reduction will help to reduce this double chin and local treatments will

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Apple, Date and Celery Salad—Parboil large apples and cut into small pieces and squeeze over these the juice of half a lemon; cut five choice stalks of celery in small pieces; pour boiling water over half a pound of dates; stir the water through them; skim to an earthen dish and dry in the oven. When cold cut into four or five lengthswise pieces; mix the apple, dates and celery together and add a generous half cup of mayonnaise dressing and stir again. Nuts are a pleasing addition. When possible serve on hot lettuce leaves or garnish with ends of celery.

Bean Soup—Two cups left over beans, one-half can of tomatoes, one onion cut fine, two bay leaves, six cloves. Cook slowly two hours, strain and add a small piece of butter.

Filled Cookies—One cup of chopped raisins, one-half cup sugar, one-half cup water and one tablespoon flour; cook. Make cookie dough as follows: One cup sugar, one-half cup shortening, one egg, one-half cup milk, one and one-half cups of flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon vanilla; roll dough thin, cut with spread with above paste, put another cookie on top and bake in moderate oven.

Humm-Delectious—Get a slice of ham half an inch thick, spread generously with brown sugar, dot sparingly with cloves, place in a roaster, add a very little water and bake in a hot oven half to three-quarters of an hour.

CHRISTMAS SALADS

Magnolia—Yolk of one egg, one cup olive or vegetable oil, one-half teaspoon tarragon vinegar, lemon juice as needed, salt, pepper and mustard to taste.

Beat the egg yolk in a small, cold bowl until thick and lemon colored. Add oil a drop at a time, beating continuously. When mixture thickens add a few drops of tarragon vinegar. Continue until oil and acid are used. Add seasonings.

Mayonnaise is not all used at once, turn into a small jar, cover closely and keep in a cold place. Do not stir or beat it or it will separate.

Thousand Island Dressing—To one cup mayonnaise add to eight of eggs, cut fine; one-quarter of a green pepper, one-quarter of a pimento, also cut fine; two tablespoons chili sauce and a few drops of tobacco sauce.

Island Dressing—To one cup of thousand island dressing add one egg, hard cooked and chopped fine, and one-quarter of an onion, grated.

Green Salad—Drain one-half a canned pear or peach, place them on a bed of lettuce, and thick cooked salad dressing or mayonnaise, garnish them with red cherry or cooked whole cranberry and serve at once.

Walnut Salad—One-fourth cup each sliced celery, tart apple (sprinkled with lemon juice) and chopped nuts (sprinkled with salt). Moisten with walnut dressing, mayonnaise or baked dressing.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON.

Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young married girl and will be sixteen in the summer. I have been married a year and a half. My husband was always so good until lately. Now he tells me he hates me and it worries me so. I love him very dearly and he always said he loved me. Do you think he is getting tired of me? He is very jealous. He is twenty-four now. Please tell me how I can forget his wrong doings and make him love me more.

Yes, I am afraid your husband is getting tired of you. Since he is jealous, however, he has not lost all interest in you and you have everything to encourage you.

First of all you must be very careful of your appearance and look as pretty and attractive as you can at all the time. So many women get careless after marriage and they let their clothes run down and do not care how slovenly they appear when their husbands are at home. Before marriage you used to dress up when you expected your fiancé to come to see you, and now that you are married you should act as nearly as possible in the same way.

Do not mention your husband's "wrong doings" to him, because it will do no good. Let him do as he thinks best in everything. When he seems quarrelsome, close your lips tightly and do not argue with him. Let him say he no longer loves you for a while, and all the time keep striving to make him see you as a beautiful and attractive girl again.

You should get away from home and mingle with people. Get into church work; if you sew with the ladies and help in their socials, you will get new ideas and have new interests. Also organize a sewing club and ask your girl friends to be members. If you are active outside your home as well as inside, you will see that your husband's respect for you increases.

If you can afford it, entertain your friends. Invite some one your husband likes into dinner. Do not settle down into an uninteresting, unattractive little married woman. Keep yourself alive by reading, work and mingling with other people.

"Mrs. C. F. J." Get a package of inkblot at the drug store. Make a strong tea of it by steeping the herb for two or three hours, and then wash your little girl's hair in the tea. Let the hair dry without rinsing it, and then pick out the nits. Brushing will also help to remove them.

The presentation is a community affair and the first of a number of community musical events which it is believed will prove popular in Janesville and bring out the singing talent here in the greatest measure.

At Milton Tuesday Night
The chorus is also made up of Milton college members and the director, Prof. L. H. Stringer is of the Milton College faculty. The oratorio will be presented in all its magnificent grandeur of music at Milton on Tuesday evening December 20. The local chorus will be taken to Milton by automobiles furnished by members of the different clubs and organizations here under the direction of Leo Atwood, manager of the Chamber of Commerce. Rehearsal was held Thursday evening and the splendid response was a matter of note. The last rehearsal will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 instead of 3 o'clock as heretofore. Members who have not secured tickets are requested to be sure and get them at the rehearsal on Sunday. It is the hope of the director that every member of the chorus will be present on Sunday.

Soloists are of Note
Soloists for the rendition of Messiah are James Hamilton, the young American tenor, who is a member of the faculty of the Lyceum Fine Arts Conservatory of Chicago. During the last five years he has appeared in more than 500 cities in the United States, and has sung before a million people, including audiences in New York, Chicago, and other art centers. His exceptional musical gifts are accompanied by a strikingly personable personality which at once wins the sympathetic attention of his hearers and forms a fitting background for his exceptional artistic talent.

Mr. Hamilton is a member of the faculty of the Lyceum Fine Arts Conservatory, Chicago.
Albert Borroff-Basso
"The recitalist well earned the enthusiasm which he received. His voice is of admirable quality and is well handled. Moreover, Mr. Borroff sings with feeling and with artistic understanding of that which he sings. It was possible to hear only six out of some twenty offerings, but these six—the opening group—were the most exciting of the works," says Felix Borovsky, critic.

Kurleton Blackett says, "Albert Borroff gave a song recital to the Illinois Theater, before an audience of good size which was highly appreciative of the singer. Mr. Borroff has learned the art of singing, with feeling for the text, comprehension of the music, with a tone of fine quality, and a vocal control that enables him to express with in his mind. The art of the singer is one of the most taxing and Mr. Borroff proved his mastery."

Mr. Borroff has a studio in Kimball Hall, Chicago.
Soprano and Contralto
Mrs. George A. McGraw has a powerful contralto voice and wide experience in lyric work, particularly in Messiah roles.
Mrs. Winifred Willson-Quinlan, Soprano, who is a member of the faculty of Lawrenceville Conservatory, Appleton, has a voice of wide range and great sweetness, combined with able interpretation.

CHRISTIANSEN HAS BEEN PARDONED

The field was a clot of blood. Several boards had been removed from the wooden fence and blood bespattered the boards and the ground. Entering the house, the party headed by Ezra Goedrich found Hendrick Christiansen, a painter, who boarded at the home, attired in his best clothes, playing with the two Fogarty children apparently in the very happy and in the best of spirits. On the door step of the home was blood and on the little pieces of carpet which covered the floor of the sitting room Mrs. Fogarty, on the entrance of the men, came downstairs.

On the north side of the house, near a block which had been used to behead chickens, was found an axe covered with blood and having upon the blade, half of a sandy color, the same as that of the dead man. Mrs. Fogarty's nightgown found in another room had blood upon it and more blood was found in the front room upstairs occupied by Fogarty.

Woman is Jailed.
The iron reinforcement and buckle of Fogarty's wooden leg, which he wore, were found in the stove, amid the ashes. Mrs. Fogarty denied all knowledge of the crime but Christiansen, after being questioned by Marshall Russell, confessed his guilt.

"We had a fuss and he pulled a revolver on me and I killed him with an axe," was Christiansen's statement.

Handcuffed, Christiansen, with Mrs. Fogarty and her two children were taken to Janesville by Sheriff Commerce, where they were placed in jail, here. They were placed in cells on separate floors.

Followed Child's Murder.

The story of the events leading up to the brutal murder, the quarrel and Fogarty's death was told by Christiansen as he sat in his cell in jail. Following by only a week, the sentencing of George Baumgardner, 27, to life imprisonment for the cold blooded murder of little five year old Alexander White, whose body was found hanging from a rafter in a shoe maker, his chest terribly cut and his hands and feet bound tightly behind him, the murder stirred Southern Wisconsin and talk of a lynching was rife.

Peddling Not Prosperous.

The tin peddling business of the one-legged man was not prosperous and Christiansen, a painter, loaned him money and helped support the family, beside paying board. The quarrel which culminated in Fogarty's death started over the payment of $13 which Christiansen claimed Fogarty still owed him. Before leaving for Janesville Saturday morning, according to the story told by Christiansen, he wanted to break up housekeeping, send his wife to his relatives in Sun Prairie and become a motorman on the Chicago street car lines.

On his return late that night from Janesville, Christiansen went down in his night clothes to open the door, Fogarty's wife being asleep. The two men had several drinks of alcohol and water together and then Christiansen asked Fogarty to pay him what he owed. Knowing that he was going to sell the furniture, Christiansen suggested that he sell the furniture and take his money out of that.

Mr. Him With Axe
"He became angry," Christiansen said, "and called me several vile names. Told me that if I wanted a fight I could have it. He called me a liar, drew a revolver and was going to shoot me when I grasped it with my left hand and knocked him down with a blow from my right fist. Jumping up, he yelled that he would get even with me and stepped out of the door. I followed and, picking up an axe, which was on the opposite of the step from where he was standing, hit him with it. He fell, uttering that he would never get up. I knew he was going to die, so I hit him again and again and kept on hitting him. I don't know how many times, I didn't stop to count."

Got Away With Body

"Going into the house, I put on my pants and vest and went out into the yard, took off his wooden leg and put it in the cellar. I picked up the body and carried it on my shoulder out to the stacks. Laying him down in the driveway between the stacks I fixed the hay, placing some of it on top of him. I then went back to the house, placed the axe near the block, after scrubbing the blood off with a bread knife, burned the wooden leg in the stove, sandpapered the floor where it was covered with blood and went to bed and slept for an hour and a half."

Christiansen denied that Mrs. Fogarty had any knowledge of the crime but the woman admitted that she helped wash up the blood and that she was attracted to the scene following the slaying.

Mrs. Fogarty Held

Mrs. Fogarty was held for trial for murder with Christiansen. As she was taken to Milton for the preliminary examination, passing in the opposite direction was the hearse carrying the mangled remains of her husband. Mrs. Fogarty admitted that she had intimate relations with Christiansen on one occasion.

Taken before Judge Conger, in the Rock county circuit court Nov. 10, Christiansen entered a plea of guilty to first degree murder, in self defense. He was shown no leniency and was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor, the 15th, 19th and 20th day of October of each year to be spent in solitary confinement.

Mrs. Fogarty went free, due to the efforts of her attorneys, J. B. Doe, and E. M. Hyzer, Janesville.

She secured a change of venue to Walworth county, at Elkhorn but her case was postponed until the following year on account of illness. In May 1889, a boy was born to her in jail.

Let Mrs. Fogarty Go

On Oct. 9, a jury in the Walworth county court at Elkhorn after deliberating for 11 hours, found Mrs. Fogarty not guilty.

Christiansen is a Hollander, born there about 1850 according to the age he gave at the time of trial. He is one of the family of 13 children of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Christiansen who lived in Milwaukee. He had been in America for 11 years and had painted many houses in Janesville and worked for Rogers & Hutchinson, painters of this city. He was unmarried.

Stockley Hutchinson, son of Stockley Hutchinson, who founded the firm with Rogers, buying him out in 1890, recalls Christiansen who worked here.

Knew Christiansen

"He was an industrious worker," said Mr. Hutchinson. "He had no relatives here to my knowledge." Kendrick Christiansen will before Christmas be released from Walworth where he has spent 42 years of his life for murdering another man, on a conditional pardon. He will be taken care of by relatives, says Governor Blaine, as he is practically blind.

CLAIM OF SMALL DEFENSE ATTACKED

Prosecutor Declares Governor Can Get Fair Trial in Illinois.

Waukegan, Ill.—Assistant State's Attorney Price of Sangamon county who late Thursday began to answer the more technical attacks of the defense upon the indictments against Governor Len Small and Vernon Curtis, the Grant Park banker, charging them with embezzlement of state funds, conspiracy and operating confidence game, concluded his arguments Friday.

He was followed by James H. Wilkerson, assistant attorney general.

State's Attorney C. E. Mortimer of Sangamon county fired the first guns for the prosecution in defense of the indictments. "I only want to state that which shall be fair to the defendants—nothing more or less," he said, "and I can only say that if these indictments are legally insufficient then they should be quashed, but if, on the contrary, they are found to be legally sufficient, they should stand.

Mr. Mortimer also took up the contention of Governor Small's counsel that his client cannot receive a fair trial in Illinois and challenged the truth of the statement. "I was amazed beyond expression," he said, "by the statement of the counsel to this effect."

Reduced Rates on Grains. Hay Are Sustained

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington.—Reduced rates on grain, grain products and hay in trans-Mississippi territory, which the carriers recently sought to have suspended for six months, were sustained by the Interstate Commerce commission Friday and will go into effect Dec. 27. The reductions average about 10 1/2 per cent of the 1920 grain rates and are further decreased by the commission's order Friday, which requires that corn and other grain be carried for 10 per cent less than wheat and other broad-suit grains.

CAFE NEAR SAMSON PLANT IS REOPENED

The Cozy cafeteria and restaurant in Spring Brook, closed for the past three months owing to business conditions, has been reopened under management of Lars Larsen, formerly chef of the Commercial cafe. The restaurant was opened when the Samson plant was operating at full capacity but when it slackened, P. Larson, the manager, left to enter the restaurant business in Waukegan, Ill.

FAMINE DEATHS TO REACH 35,000,000

Maxim Gorky Praises American Aid to Russian Sufferers.

Stockholm—Maxim Gorky, Russian novelist and formerly head of the Russian Relief commission, told The Associated Press correspondent when he passed through this city on his way to Berlin that he believed the deaths from starvation in Russia would aggregate 35,000,000.

He heartily praised the support which the American people were giving to the starving people of Russia but said the only way out of the serious situation would be through the establishment of international relief founded on the American plan, broad, efficient, complete and well-controlled.

He expressed the opinion that Mr. Hoover's relief was somewhat imperfect and lacked organization because sufficient safeguards were not taken to prevent the stealing of the food by gangs or Soviet officials, from the time the commodities arrived in Petrograd until they are consumed.

Mr. Gorky said Mr. Hoover had placed too much confidence in the Soviet.

He deplored the passivity of France and excused Germany for not coming to the support of Russia. Sweden's contribution to the famine he thought was but a drop in the ocean.

On the question of Russian interior politics, Gorky said "unrest is as common as dinner is here, but nobody takes any notice. Quite recently there was a fierce riot in Petrograd which was only quelled after much bloodshed."
